

The mission of the Frank Porter Graham Child Development Institute (FPG) is to enhance the lives of children and families through interdisciplinary research, technical assistance, professional development, and implementation science. FPG generates knowledge, informs policies, and supports practices to promote positive developmental and educational outcomes for children of all backgrounds and abilities from the earliest years.

PEOPLE

54	Investigators
222	Staff
8	Postdoctoral Research Associates & Graduate Research Assistants
24	Fellows

EMPHASIS AREAS

Developmental Disabilities
 Early Care and Education
 International Initiative
 Physical and Social Health
 Professional Development, Technical Assistance, and Implementation Science
 Public Policy and Evaluation
 Race, Ethnicity, Linguistic, Cultural, and Socioeconomic Diversity

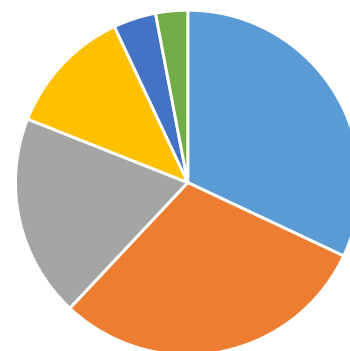

AFFILIATED DISCIPLINES

Anthropology, Audiology, Biostatistics, Education, Epidemiology, Linguistics, Maternal and Child Health, Neuroscience, Nursing, Occupational Science, Pediatrics, Psychiatry, Psychology, Public Health, Public Policy, Social Work, and Speech and Hearing Sciences

PROJECTS

69

Awards by Activity Type

- 32% Research
- 30% Technical Assistance
- 19% Implementation Science
- 12% Evaluation
- 4% Public Service
- 3% Professional Development

ANNUAL EXPENDITURES IN 2015-2016

$30,814,270

SOURCES OF FUNDS

35%	Federal agencies
23%	Private grants
18%	State government
12%	Non federal/Non NC state
5%	State appropriations
4%	F&A
3%	Other

EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP BOARD

W. Steven Barnett	David Lawrence, Jr.
Tamara Barringer	Howard N. Lee
Barbara T. Bowman	Michael L. López
Elizabeth Pungello Bruno	Marvin McKinney
Peggy Carter	Evelyn Moore
Kenneth A. Dodge	Duncan Munn
Eugene Garcia	James M. Perrin
Ron Haskins	Karen Ponder
Olson Huff	Donald J. Stedman
Hal Kaplan	